

Advertising Rules

Members and third parties can place advertisements on the ChiroSuisse website > Jobbörse / Offres d'emploi / Offerte di lavoro or > Marketplace

Rules

The rules for the advertisements for members and third parties are as follows:

- The advertisement can be placed at any time on the online marketplace.
- The advertisements can have only a limited number of characters.
- The text of the advertisement should be sent in an advertisement template via e-mail to: info@chirosuisse.info.
The advertisement template file is available at: <https://www.chirosuisse.ch/de/fachinformationen/jobborse/>
- ChiroSuisse will publish the advertisement unedited but reserves the right to shorten titles or texts that are too long.
- A PDF file with further information as well as a picture (format jpg, gif) can also be published and/or a link to your own website can be activated.
- The advertisement can be published in German, French, Italian or English (only one language).
- Each advertisement on the online marketplace is provided with the date of publication.
- An advertisement on the online marketplace remains for a maximum of 8 weeks; it can always be extended by 8 weeks.
- On the online marketplace, the latest advertisements are placed at the top.
- Third-party advertisements differ in form and background colour from those of members and are provided with a disclaimer.

Fees

	Members	Third parties
